Introduction

This policy has been developed to take into consideration our Mercy ethos and local and national policy and guidance.

It is the duty of the governing body and head teacher of any academy in which PSHE is provided to secure the following principles:

- P.H.S.E. (Personal, Health and Social Education) is presented in the course should be accurate and balanced.
- PSHE is appropriate to the ages of the pupils concerned and to their religious and cultural backgrounds, and also reflects a reasonable range of religious, cultural and other perspectives.
- PSHE should be taught in a way that endeavours to promote equality, encourages acceptance and diversity and emphasises the importance of both rights and responsibilities.
- S.R.D.E. (Sex, Relationships and Drugs Education)
Is a lifelong learning about physical, moral and emotional development. It is about understanding the importance of marriage for family life, stable and loving relationships, respect love and care. It is also about the teaching of sex education, sexuality and sexual health within the context of the academy ethos.

Key Aims:

- PSHE/SRDE is recognised as an essential part of the young person's entitlement.
- PSHE/SRDE aims to help pupil's lead confident, healthy and responsible lives as individuals and members of society locally, nationally and internationally.
- PSHE/SRDE enables pupils to gain practical knowledge and skills to help them live healthily and deal with the personal, social, moral, spiritual and cultural issues they face as they approach adulthood.
- PSHE/SRDE gives pupils opportunities to reflect on their experiences and how they are developing.
- PSHE/SRDE aims to enable pupils understand and manage responsibly a wider range of relationships as they mature, and show respect for diversity of, and differences between people.

- PSHE/SRDE aims to develop pupils' self-esteem, encouraging belief in their ability to succeed and enabling them to take responsibility for their learning and future choice of courses and career.
- PSHE builds on pupils' own experiences. It complements work done across all areas of the curriculum, through extra curricular activities, tutorials, Personal Development Days, educational visits and work within the local community and beyond.
- PSHE enables young people to contribute to the life of the academy, their neighbourhood, communities and the wider world.

PSHE/SRDE engages pupils by enabling them to gain knowledge, skills and understanding of how to:

- develop confidence and responsibility and to make the most of their abilities
- develop a healthy safer lifestyle
- Develop good relationships and respect the differences between people.

The Importance of Personal Wellbeing

Personal wellbeing helps young people to:

- embrace change
- feel positive about who they are
- enjoy healthy, safe, responsible and fulfilled lives

Through active learning opportunities pupils:

- recognise and manage risk
- take increasing responsibility for themselves their choices and behaviours
- make positive contributions to their families, academies and communities

As pupils learn to recognise, develop and communicate their qualities skills and attitudes they:

- build knowledge
- confidence
- self esteem
- make the most of their abilities

As they explore similarities and differences between people discuss social and moral dilemmas they:

- learn to deal with challenges
- accommodate diversity in all it's forms

The world is full of complex and sometimes conflicting values.

Personal wellbeing helps pupils to:

- explore this complexity
- reflect on and clarify their own values and attitudes
- identify and articulate feelings and emotions
- learn to manage new and difficult situations positively
- form and maintain effective relationships with a wide range of people

Context

The Personal wellbeing Programme of Study (non statutory) provides a context for academys to fulfil their legal responsibilities to promote wellbeing of pupils and provide sex and relationships and drugs education.

St Anthony's is an inner city comprehensive girls' academy. There are approximately 1450 pupils presently on role. The academy attracts pupils from many primary schools within and beyond the city. The academy educates pupils between the ages of 11 and 19 years. We cater for a diverse ethnic and socio-economic mix of pupils.

We are particularly aware of the health and social needs of our pupils and the backgrounds from which they belong eg.

- Free academy meals
- Local health issues compared to national statistics
- Fft statistics and predictions
- Unemployment
- Alcohol/Tobacco issues
- Single parents
- Mental health
- Asylum seekers/refugees /immigrant workers
- Crime/safety transport issues
- English as an additional language

This PSHE/SRDE Policy has been developed in consultation with:

- Senior Leadership Team
- Staff
- Governors
- Parents
- Pupils
- Academy NHS Nurses
- PSHE/SRDE Co-ordinator
- Local Police
- Academy Council members

- Catholic Diocesan Guidance on SRE
- Sunderland Health Related Behaviour Survey

VALUES AND ETHOS

At St Anthony's Academy we believe young people's personal, social, health, moral, cultural, spiritual and emotional development can be encouraged by a supportive academy ethos. We aim to provide a curriculum for each student that is broad, balanced and appropriate so that she can develop her God given gifts and talents to achieve her full potential in line with our mercy ethos.

We aim to:

- Recognise the dignity of the human person and the command of Christ to love and care for each other
- Build self- esteem among individuals and create a community marked by caring and belonging that leads to personalised learning
- Work towards eradicating suffering and it's causes
- Seek to create compassion as a driving force in the search for justice for those at the margins of the community
- Educate students to question the status quo and to be active for social change and the promotion of equal opportunities
- Show social responsibility for the world we inhabit by working towards creating a world where everyone can live lives of dignity and decency and respect for life
- Ensure the academy is a community where parent's, staff and students share a common vision as a community of warmth and love

The Mercy ethos aims at education which is

- Christ centred
- Faith enlightened
- Builds communities
- Shows concern for the poor particularly women and girls
- Pursues excellence

We aim to provide:

A safe and secure academy environment that is conducive to learning where:

- All young people are valued and encouraged
- Positive relationships are promoted throughout the academy
- Potential is recognised and developed and all forms of achievement are celebrated

Personal wellbeing makes a major contribution to the promotion of personal development and character of the individual and that of the academy.

It is also our aim to incorporate all aspects of:

- Social
- Moral
- Spiritual
- Cultural (SMSC) Education into pastoral and curricula programmes.

NATIONAL HEALTHY ACADEMY STANDARD - NHSS

As part of our commitment to the NHSS, we endeavour to promote a whole academy approach to the development and implementation of this policy.

DIVERSITY AND EQUALITY

We aim to promote social inclusion equality and celebrate diversity in all aspects of academy life. We will challenge all forms of discrimination including that based on race, gender, sexuality, mental or physical disability whenever it should occur in academy.

RATIONALE

St Anthony's Girls' Academy believes that:

- PSHE/SRDE contributes to development of young people in becoming informed, thoughtful and responsible citizens who are aware of their rights, responsibilities and duties.
- PSHE/SRDE enables pupils to develop skills, knowledge and understanding of their role and responsibility in society at a local, national and international level.
- PSHE/SRDE encourages pupils to adopt attitudes, which are respected and accepted by others in society.
- PSHE/SRDE enables pupils to become more self-confident and responsible both in and beyond the classroom.
- PSHE/SRDE enables pupils to contribute to the life of the academy, their neighbourhood, communities and the wider world.
- PSHE/SRDE teaches young people about economy, democracy, human rights and values: encourages respect for different national, religious and ethnic identities and develops pupils' ability to reflect on issues and participate in discussions.

DEFINITION

PSHE/SRDE encompasses the curriculum aims, key concepts, key processes, the range and content and curriculum opportunities set out in the statutory requirements of the Key Stage 3 & 4 National Curriculum Programme of Study. It incorporates all aspects of our planned provision that promote positive attitudes, knowledge, skills, understanding and potential of children and young people to enable them to have confident, healthy independent lives, and become informed, active and responsible citizens.

PERSONAL WELLBEING – CURRICULUM AIMS

Learning and undertaking activities to contribute to Personal Wellbeing contributes to the achievement of the curriculum aims for all young people to become:

- Successful students who enjoy learning, making progress and achieve
- Confident individuals who are able to live safe, healthy and fulfilling lives
- Responsible citizens who make a positive contribution to society

In accordance with National Curriculum End of Key Stage (3 and 4) Statements for Personal Wellbeing we aim to ensure that learners are able to:

At Key Stage 3

Personal Identities

- Reflect on and evaluate their achievements and strengths in different areas of their lives

Diversity

- Explain how differing cultures, faiths and beliefs may influence lifestyle choices, and demonstrate respect for these differences.
- Take the initiative in challenging or giving support in connection with offensive or abusive behaviour

We also aim to:

- Develop the pupil's ability to reflect on and become responsible for their own learning, future choice of courses and career.
- Provide pupils with the opportunity to develop self-esteem, self-awareness and understanding, self-reliance, self-discipline and to make the most of their abilities.
- Enable pupils to develop their understanding and knowledge relating to the basis of their own cultural heritage and that of different communities, through the PSHE/SRDE programme, a cross-curricular input and community involvement.
- Enable pupils to enquire about the differences, beliefs and values within their own, plural and global communities by providing access to Internet and other communication/ media sources.
- Provide opportunities for pupils to develop their self-confidence and decision-making skills in order to articulate empathy and formulate informed opinions.
- Enable pupils to gain an appreciation of the important, necessary and invaluable part they play within the community of St Anthony's Girls' Academy and how this is reflected in the wider community.
- Provide opportunities for pupils to learn about institutions, issues and practices within their own culture and those of different cultures. Extend their opinions by considering the complexities of issues and practices through research and discussion
- Provide opportunities for pupils to meet and debate issues with outside speakers and agencies.

Develop young people's understanding of health and safety issues

- Develop a healthy lifestyle so that they can stay as healthy as possible and keep themselves and others safe
- Reduce the chance of their education being interrupted or impaired eg through unintended pregnancy, drug misuse, fear of bullying.

Develop young peoples ability to form positive relationships

- Understand and manage responsibly a wider range of relationships as they mature and show respect for the diversity of differences between people so that they can go on to form effective, fulfilling relationships
- Appreciate the need for co-operation and concern for others and enable them to cope with difficult situations

Encourage active citizenship and the involvement of young people in their community.

Enable young people to:

- Play an active role as a member of a democratic society and become active in the life and concerns of their academy, neighbourhood and community and the wider world
- Develop a sense of social and moral responsibility and fairness
- Have the ability to develop and communicate their own values and beliefs while respecting those of different cultural traditions and make informed decisions
- Develop a knowledge and understanding of current issues and the main social institutions that affect their lives and of their responsibilities, rights and duties as individuals and members of communities.

OBJECTIVES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

WE AIM TO

- Consider and include the teachings and guidance of the Catholic Church.
- Develop a whole academy approach to PSHE making connections to all other areas of the curriculum, including extra-curricular activities, educational visits, links with key skills and all other areas within and beyond the academy environment.
- Work in an inclusive way reflecting and valuing the diverse perceptions, experiences and needs of all young people regardless of their educational ability, social or ethnic group and emerging sexuality.
- Promote a wide variety of opportunities, with an emphasis on 'real life' learning including giving all young people the opportunity to become actively involved in the life of the academy and its community.
- Develop PSHE in partnership with the whole academy community through regular consultation and to ensure that PSHE is based on what young people need to learn and builds on their experiences and work at previous key stages.
- Work flexibly using a wide range of active teaching styles skills, opportunities, thematic or concept based approaches.
- Develop a range of methods to assess, monitor and evaluate the learning of young people.
- Take into consideration the health and social needs of those within the community and the pressures of the media.

- Opportunities for pupils are given to reflect, monitor and evaluate their progress are given both in lessons and through reviews on Personal Development Days.
- Monitoring each pupil's progress takes into account contributions made by them through activities in academy, extracurricular activities, and contributions made within the wider community – a HOLISTIC approach to monitoring is preferred and encouraged.

STATEMENT ON THE DELIVERY OF PSHE/SRDE

PSHE/SRDE will be delivered according to the requirements of the National Programmes of Study at end of each Key Stage. The main aim will be that pupils reach according to their ability, the levels of understanding as stated in the National Curriculum descriptor for the end of each Key Stage.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All guidelines and procedures set out in the Staff Handbook and staff policies are followed.

HANDLING OF CONTROVERSIAL AND SENSITIVE ISSUES

We are required by law to cover controversial and sensitive issues. When such issues arise, we will:

- Ensure "Ground Rules" are established about expectations of behaviour towards each individual and how the issue will be dealt with
- Judge when to allow pupils to discuss issues confidentially and when to join in to offer support

- Ensure the pupils are aware of the differences between fact, opinion and belief and that they have access to balanced information and views and that they can clarify their own opinions and views
- Establish the boundaries appropriate for expressing personal views and opinions
- Use distancing techniques to avoid the risk of personalisation
- Ensure that pupils know they can leave the room (accompanied) should they find it difficult to handle a particular issue
- Provide appropriate support at the end of each lesson for any pupil troubled by an issue raised

SPECIFIC ISSUES - PUPILS

Specific issues regarding pupils are referred to:

- The Tutor
- Assistant Directors
- Deputy Head Mrs. M Lanaghan

ANY CHILD PROTECTION ISSUES – INFORMATION DIRECTLY TO DESIGNATED PERSON (Mrs M Lanaghan) or DEPUTY DESIGNATED PERSON (Mrs F Collins)

SPECIFIC ISSUES - STAFF

Any specific issues concerning staff members – information is to be given directly to Mrs Shepherd (Head Teacher) or a Deputy Head Teacher.

WITHDRAWAL OF PUPILS FROM LESSONS BY PARENTS

Should a parent/carer exercise their right to withdraw their child from SRDE, Mrs Lanaghan will be informed and the child will be accommodated with appropriate work set for them. Parents have the right to withdraw their child without giving reasons for withdrawal. Withdrawal of pupils from lessons does not apply to the biological content of SRDE provision.

EXCLUSION OF PUPILS FROM LESSONS BY STAFF

The usual procedures for Exclusion from lessons will be followed.

COMPLAINTS

See “Complaints Policy”

DIVERSE EDUCATIONAL NEEDS

PSHE/SRDE lessons are totally inclusive. The needs of each pupil will be addressed individually through differentiation and appropriate support offered and given.

- Suitable and realistic targets will be set for pupils of all abilities
- Awareness of the wide range of pupils' learning needs by selecting a range of suitable resources, tasks and assessments to help overcome barriers to learning
- Make constructive use of learning support staff where needed.

PUPILS WITH SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS

- Differentiation through task and outcome for less able pupils
- Use of Buddy System in lessons to support and encourage all pupils
- Use of added vocabulary and visual stimulus within lessons
- Facilities for pupils to monitor and contribute to their own learning
- Appropriate assessment opportunities

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MORE ABLE AND TALENTED PUPILS

- Extension material that provides natural progression
- Use of vocabulary
- Variety of challenging texts
- Pace and rigour to the lessons extension by thought and questioning
- Expectation of pupils to be reflective and critical of their work
- Facilities for pupils to monitor and contribute to their own learning
- Appropriate assessment opportunities

STAFF DEVELOPMENT

In order to promote an effective whole academy approach to PSHE we will attempt to ensure that all staff have the confidence and understanding to support their particular contribution.

We will do this by:

- Informing staff of their role in raising pupils' levels of self-awareness and self-esteem and supporting them in that role
- Encouraging all staff to enable pupils to take more responsibility for their behaviour and learning by giving continued support and guidance
- Encouraging staff to act as facilitators in class discussions and group projects
- Promoting the importance on reflection and the need to review the learning process
- Acknowledge and share examples of good practice
- Encourage attendance to appropriate courses, presentations locally and nationally (CPD)

DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION

All information regarding PSHE/SRDE is shared via the academy website to all stakeholders.
