Individual research project - Year 12/13

Students must identify a subject or a key question which is of interest to them and which relates to a country or countries where French is spoken. They must select relevant information in French from a range of sources including the internet. The aim of the research project is to develop research skills. Students will demonstrate their ability to initiate and conduct individual research by analysing and summarising their findings, in order to present and discuss them in the speaking assessment. Students may choose a subject linked to one of the themes or sub-themes or to one of the works. However, students must not base their research on the same literary text or film that they refer to in their written assessment. Students within a school or college should each choose a different subject for their research. However, if more than one student selects the same general subject area, the title of their research and their approach must be different. The A-level Content Advisory Board (ALCAB) has published illustrative examples of individual research topics at alcab.org.uk.

Some websites to get you started:

- 1 jour 1 actu is an amazing website with short videos explaining topical things to children. They are very fast but the language is simple and the animations can aid your understanding as well. We will use videos from there throughout the course. Try it out! <https://www.1jour1actu.com/info-animee/cest-quoi-le-14-juillet>
- <https://www.kids-world-travel-guide.com/france-facts.html>
- <https://theculturetrip.com/north-america/canada/quebec/articles/why-is-french-spoken-in-canada/>

Watch

TELEVISION

- <http://www.tv5monde.com/> Watch this channel to gain access to the last episodes of all of their TV shows. Check out their French language learning section at <http://apprendre.tv5monde.com/> where you can watch clips and answer comprehension questions on what you have seen with accompanying grammar exercises.
- Download an app called 6play on your iPad - search in the App Store for M6. This is a popular French TV channel. Not all programmes are available outside of France, but there is a good selection and these help with listening skills.

FILMS

- La Haine, dir. Mathieu Kassovitz (1995)
- Au Revoir les Enfants, dir. Louis Malle (1987)
- Chocolat, dir. Claire Denis (1988)
- Cléo de 5 à 7, dir. Agnès Varda (1962)
- La Vie en Rose, dir. Olivier Dahan (2007)
- Les Choristes, dir. Christophe Barratier (2004)

- Les 400 Coups, dir. François Truffaut (1959)
- Les Parapluies de Cherbourg, dir. Jacques Demy (1964) Watch here!
<https://vimeo.com/332773417>
- No et Moi, dir. Zabou Breitman (2010)
- Intouchables, dir. Olivier Nakache (2011)
- NETFLIX (IF YOU HAVE IT!)

To keep topped up on your French, there are many series/ films on netflix right now. Some very good ones include... Le Bazar de la Charité (Bonfires of Destiny), Dix Pour Cent, La Mante, Plan Coeur, Ad Vitam, Zone Blanche. Watch the French versions with subtitles, not a version that has been dubbed in English. You could write a review of your opinion of what you watched (Past Tense) and if you would recommend it to others (Conditional Tense).

Mind Map

Mind map / start to learn the vocabulary lists in Appendix 3- this is a long term project. This is the key vocabulary needed on the course (more comes up during the study but this is a brilliant start).

LISTEN TO THE RADIO

The great thing about listening to the radio is that you can get on with something else at the same time. Listen live using the Radio France or the Europe 1. It sometimes takes a while to buffer so be patient.

- Radio France (www.radiofrance.fr)
- Europe 1 (www.europe1.fr)
- Le mouv (www.mouv.fr) (this is the French equivalent to Kiss FM or Capital)
- Europe 2 (www.europe2.fr)

Read

Keep your own vocabulary book for new expressions you come across - there is a sheet at the back of this booklet to start you off. Or you can ask your teacher for a small vocab booklet to fill in as you go. You could order it alphabetically, by topic area based on what we are going to study or just use it as a diary and scribble away your French development in it.

NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES

Read a foreign language newspaper - Le Figaro is available in larger paper shops. Le Figaro has its own website <http://www.lefigaro.fr/> so that you can read the paper online. You do not have to read the paper cover to cover, just scan the headlines and pick out ONE article that grabs your attention.

This website gives you access to newspapers all over the world. Here is the link to a range of French papers. <http://www.mediatico.com/en/newspapers/europe/france/national/>

This website is a more light-hearted newspaper which covers global stories as well as gossip. <http://www.20minutes.fr>. Also try <http://www.20minutos.fr/tv/>. This is the TV Channel for this newspaper.

In France there is also a news website for young people: www.l-eco.fr. It has sections on the Internet and Mobile Technology; Science and Wildlife; Education; Culture; Sport; Society and Health.

To catch up on the latest gossip and to see what the celebs are wearing, take a look at www.elle.fr.

WEBSITES

Switch to French browsers such as and <http://fr.yahoo.com/> or www.yahoo.fr as well as www.google.fr. This way, you will read French every time you log on and it will become part of your everyday activity. (You could also change the language on your phone!).

Look at the BBC website <http://www.bbc.co.uk/languages/french/tv> for links to French programmes available on line.

Language skills: this website is free after 4pm and really comes into its own with its A level section. Watch news video clips, find theme related vocabulary and do listening and reading comprehensions. Find it here <http://zut.languageskills.co.uk/advanced/year12.html>

WEBSITES FOR RESEARCH

Once you actually start your A Level in September, you will realise that you are almost completing a Sociology A Level in French. It is fascinating and you will learn all about the history and culture of French speakers. Here are some websites bursting with information about France and Francophone countries. Always start your research with these websites as it is easy to get bogged down when looking for help on the internet.

If you are searching for information, try switching to the French www.fr.wikipedia.

Remember that anyone can write on Wikipedia so you must validate your research elsewhere and never quote from it!
It is a good place to start though.

A French government run website:

<http://www.gouvernement.fr/>

A website in English with some great links to various topics:

<http://french.about.com/>

British Council support available from <http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/> Keep your eyes peeled as they often have trips to France for free! You have to apply for them but they are an amazing opportunity to build your French skills. There is no better way to learn a language than by spending time in that country.

ON-LINE DICTIONARY

A good on-line dictionary is: <http://www.wordreference.com/>

TOP TIP: Don't look up every word you are not sure of when reading an article/ book

Yes... you read that right. When you are reading articles etc, try not to look up every word as it will take you forever. Skim and scan the text to get the gist. Remember to use the context or the article, cognates and common sense to figure out what the article is saying. Pick out a couple of words that you like the look of, that you feel may be real hurdles to getting the idea of the text, look them up carefully and add them to your vocab booklet. The aim at this stage is to get the gist of the article, not be able to translate it completely. Translation is a whole different ball game and you will learn it soon enough.

You will be surprised how much more enjoyable reading will be if you really pay attention to this tip.

What should I know by now?

This is a common question asked by students about to start their A level. You should be able to:

TOPIC	CONTENT
Recognise and use a range of tenses with regular verbs .	Regular -RE, -ER, -IR verbs: Tenses: Present Passé Composé Imperfect Near Future (form of aller + infinitive) Future (eg. sera) Conditional (eg. serait)
Recognise and use a range of tenses with irregular verbs .	Common irregular verbs: être, avoir, aller, pouvoir, vouloir Tenses: Present Passé Composé Imperfect Near Future (form of aller + inf.) Future (eg. sera) Conditional (eg. serait)
Give opinions with reasons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A range of opinion expressions</li><li>• Positive and negative reasons for opinions</li><li>• To be able to agree and disagree</li></ul>

Links to Grammar Practice Exercises

- Languages online: The Grammar Revision resources on www.languagesonline.org.uk are great as you can then select what tense you want to revise, read the explanations and complete the exercises. You can do these as often as you like and it gives you a percentage. Another useful tactic is to translate the examples and exercises into English to ensure you understand the meaning of each tense.

The screenshot shows the 'Français' section of the website. At the top, there are two small French flags flanking the word 'Français'. Below this is a message from Andrew Balaam: 'All units in this section are designed and written by Andrew Balaam. If you spot a mistake or have any comments, please send me an e-mail.' To the right of the message is a button labeled 'Start learning today'. Below the message, there are links for other languages: German, Italian, French, Spanish, Portuguese, and Russian. A 'Quick Links' menu at the bottom includes Primary Vocabulary, Encore Tricolore 1 Topics, Encore Tricolore 2 Crosswords and Quizzes, Tricolore Total 4 AS Resources, Grammar A2 Resources, and a link to Babbel.

Either choose to practice your grammar or work through some of the AS Resources.

- Conjuguemos: a great website for practicing your verb conjugations. Find it here: <https://conjuguemos.com/>

The screenshot shows the homepage of Conjuguemos. The main title 'Conjuguemos' is at the top left. To its right are three speech bubbles containing the words 'hallo', 'hola', and 'ciao'. Below the title is a blue button with the text 'Start by using the Conjuguemos library'. At the bottom of the page is a large green frog character. On the right side, there is a blue speech bubble containing the text 'Click here to access the French verb exercises.' Above this speech bubble is a description of the site: 'Think of Conjuguemos as an online workbook for your Spanish, French, German, Italian, Portuguese or Latin language students. The site stores a large amount of practice activities, with more exercises added during the year by our users. Teachers can also create their own activities.' Navigation links at the top include Tutorial, Getting Started, FAQs, and Contact Us.

- Language skills: this website is free after 4pm and really comes into its own with its A level section. Practice your verbs, pronouns, do practice translations and review other grammar points. Find it here <http://zut.languageskills.co.uk/advanced/year12.html>.

Tasks

Complete the task log, or make your own one up but you will need to go through it with your French teacher in September so make sure that it is clear and useful to you.

When you look at a website/ link on here, highlight it and note the date and what you thought about it. You can then put a couple of notes in your task log.

1. Create a Memrise account - your name or something that is very recognisable as you. You should aim to achieve 100,000 points by the first lesson - prizes for those who achieve it!
2. Summarise, in French, 2 articles (that were in French!) that you have read from one of the websites/ papers above and say why they interested you. If you cannot print the article, make a note of the website. Try and make these related to one of the topics we will study (listed below).
  - Changes in family structures, attitudes towards marriage, couples and the family.
  - Volunteering projects and charity work undertaken in France
  - Working life, attitudes to work, the right to strike and the right to vote for young people
  - Changes in music and its impact on popular culture
  - Festivals and traditions of France and francophone countries.
3. Translate the blurb for La Haine before watching it. Bring this along with you on paper to your first lesson:

La Haine est un film dramatique français en noir et blanc écrit et réalisé par Mathieu Kassovitz, sorti en 1995.

L'histoire commence juste après une nuit d'émeutes opposant des jeunes d'une cité à la police en région parisienne. Ces émeutes sont consécutives à la grave blessure d'Abdel Ichaha, un habitant, par un inspecteur de police. Les protagonistes, Vinz (Vincent Cassel), Saïd (Saïd Taghmaoui) et Hubert (Hubert Koundé), sont un trio multiethnique originaire de la cité, se promenant d'abord dans celle-ci puis partant à Paris pour la soirée. Le film suit leurs péripéties d'un matin au suivant.

Le film est projeté la première fois lors du festival de Cannes 1995, où il remporte le prix de la mise en scène, puis sort en salles le 31 mai, réalisant deux millions d'entrées en France. Il sort ensuite dans plusieurs pays en version sous-titrée. Nommé onze fois aux César en 1996, La Haine y obtient trois récompenses, notamment le César du meilleur film.

4. Choose a Francophone country and prepare a short presentation on an aspect of culture - this should last no longer than 5 mins. You can create a PPT if you want, but try and use headings rather than too much prose on the slide. This will be good practice for your IRP.
5. Look out for any items in the English or French media relating to topics we will study - as above so that you have points to make in a discussion and opinions to give.
6. Go onto www.languagesonline.org.uk . Complete 10 exercises. Each exercise takes less than 5 minutes. Note down the exercise you did and your score.
7. Complete the grammar review (Appendix 1) so that you can target any areas you feel weak on and feel good about the areas you know.
8. Complete the tense worksheet (Appendix 2) to practice your tenses.
9. Read through the AQA A-Level French course overview so that you have an idea of what we will be studying. This will also help you with task 4 above.
10. If you find any other websites/ links/ twitter feeds that you think are worth sharing, note them down too.
11. Each time you pass a second hand shop, pop in and see whether they have any large dictionaries or any French books - either fiction or grammar. You can find old French dictionaries worth £35 on sale for less than £5!

* Remember that all reflective verbs (a verb with a reflective pronoun me, te, se, nous or vous) take être in the perfect tense (never avoir).

** In the conditional perfect, you use either avoir or être in the conditional tense plus the past participle. To select the correct conditional verb, just think about what the past participle uses in the perfect tense as the auxiliary verb- avoir or être. It's that simple !

In GCSE, we have mainly looked at si clauses using the imperfect and the conditional. But there are others (e.g. number 1 is pluperfect and conditional perfect). Look up si clauses on the internet and see if you can work out how they all work. The nice thing, they all translate in the same way in English !
