As a department our aim is to offer a stimulating and exciting educational environment in which students of all abilities are offered a comparable range of artistic opportunities and feel comfortable to excel with their creative endeavours. We strive to create a supportive and collaborative ethos for learning by providing investigative and enquiry based learning opportunities throughout our curriculum. Our Art and Design curriculum is high quality, well thought out and is planned to demonstrate progression.

Fine Art – The final unit of work at A level is an exam component. This consists of around 7 questions or titles set by the exam board. They vary from year to year but are always very open and creative. Students pick the one title they find most interesting/accessible and produce a portfolio of work based on this theme under the guidance of staff. Exam projects start in February and run until around late April during class time.

Term 1 – Photography – Personal Project

Fine Art – At the end of Y12 students embark upon their selected personal project, which continues into Y13. This project is independently developed by students, under the guidance of staff, and often links to wider aims such as University courses or areas of study. This project begins with a formal piece of writing. Students are required to have a first draft completed by the summer holidays along with some initial research into their chosen theme.

Photography – Similar to Art students, the Photography students begin conducting research into their Personal Project. The theme is selected by pupils and some initial research is conducted and presented in the form of digital slides.

Fine Art - Student's second project is designed to be a contrasting look at the art world when compared with the more organic shapes and forms of the human figure. In this 'Structures' unit students can explore architecture or other more linear or constructivist types and styles of artwork, broadening portfolios and overall exploration of art historical themes.

Photography – Students look at the key formal elements linked with Art and Photography, such as Colour, Tone, Texture etc. Pupils explore a range of techniques designed to emphasise and manipulate each of these elements to best effect.

Term 2 – Photography – The Formal Elements

Fine Art - Student's begin their A Level course by looking at one of art histories most explored subject matters, portraits and figurative work. The wider theme and style is independently selected by the students meaning they can explore a certain genre of artwork under this umbrella.

Photography – Students begin by looking at a range of camera settings and techniques such as Shutter speed photography. Exploration of what the camera can do is key to later development and experimentation.
