Hints and Tips:

- Listening and reading papers – vocabulary learning is key. It is essential to learn the vocabulary we have been covering in class. If a word comes up that you do not know, use your strategies. Look for cognates and near cognates, use process of elimination and word families. Remember to look at your vocab lists on TEAMS.
- Translation to English – proofread. If it does not make sense to you who is fluent in English, it is incorrect and so you must check it over. Check the verbs- are you using the correct person of the verb?
- Translation to Target Language - Check the verbs- are you using the correct person of the verb? Try not to leave any gaps, have a go.
- Writing Tasks – You are not expected to write too much, it is best to be concise and accurate. Use adjectives and connectives to grow sentences and secure top marks. Remember to include opinions and reasons.
- Writing- try to include complex language. For example 'me gustaría'-I would like. You could say what pet you would like or what you would like to study.
