

Module one	Module two	Module three
Module Title: Relationship and conflict in the mid 20th century	Module Title: How did the Cold War develop 1948 to 1991	Module Title: Revision/public examinations
Learning intent for this module: How did Nazi economic policies affect the living standards of German citizens How did Nazi economic policies affect those outside the Volksgemeinschaft Why did the Grand Alliance turn into Cold War - 1945-1949 How did the arms race lead to growing tension between the superpowers How did crises in Hungary, Berlin and Cuba lead to growing tension between the superpowers Key content to be learned: Why was opposing the Nazis so difficult? How did the Nazis affect the lives of women? How did the Nazis affect the lives of young people? Was there an economic 'miracle' in Germany Did the German people benefit from Nazi economic policies What happened to those outside the 'Volksgemeinschaft' Persecution of the Jews and Kristallnacht Disunity of the Cold War How stable was the Grand Alliance? How did the conferences of Tehran, Yalta, Potsdam affect relations between the Grand Alliance? Impact of the atomic bomb on relations between the superpowers How did the creation of the satellite states in Eastern Europe affect relations between the Superpowers? What was the impact of the Truman Doctrine and Marshall Plan on relations between the superpowers? Why did Stalin blockade West Berlin? How did the Berlin blockade and airlift increase tension between East and West? Why did both East and West embark on an arms race? What were the causes of the Hungarian uprising of 1956? What were the consequences of the Hungarian uprising of 1956? Why were there growing tensions over Berlin? How did the building of the Berlin Wall affect relations between the superpowers? Why did Cuba become a flashpoint in the Cold War Why did the world come to the brink of nuclear war in 1962?	Learning intent for this Module: How did the crisis in Czechoslovakia lead to tension between the superpowers How far did detente de-escalate tension To what extent was there a 'Second Cold War' How did the political thinking of Khrushchev and Gorbachev affect relations between the superpowers How did the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the Soviet Union affect the Cold War Key Content to be learned: Why did the Soviet Union invade Czechoslovakia in 1968? What were the consequences of the 'Prague Spring' How did the superpowers try to reduce tension in the 1970s? - Detente and SALT Flashpoints - Why did the Soviet Union invade Afghanistan? Flashpoints - What were the consequences of the Soviet invasion? What was the impact of Reagan on the Cold War: 'The Second Cold War' What was Gorbachev's new thinking? How did Gorbachev's 'New Thinking' affect relations between the superpowers? Why was Soviet control of Eastern Europe weakening by the late 1980s? Why was the fall of the Berlin Wall so important? How did the collapse of the Soviet Union affect relations between the superpowers?	Learning intent for this module: Students to revise key content from across the course and practice exam skills. Lesson by lesson plan to be developed based on students voice and content audit Key content to be learned: Will be led by revision audit in terms of staff and students identifying key topics which require further consolidation and development.